FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 12, 2017

LeChase hires Michele Benevento as project administrator

Albany, N.Y., July 12, 2017 – LeChase Construction Services, LLC is pleased to announce the addition of Michele Benevento as a project administrator in its Albany office.

In this role, Benevento will support project managers and teams throughout all phases of assigned projects by handling administrative duties that include, but are not limited to: documentation required to set-up and close-out jobs; data tracking and reporting; billings and payables; and analysis of financial, tax and legal matters.

Benevento previously served as a diversity coordinator at Norwood-LeChase, working to track and report EEO and supplier diversity data during construction of the new Rivers Casino in Schenectady. She holds a bachelor's degree in international studies from Fairfield University in Connecticut and also studied abroad at the International American University in Aix-en-Provence, France. She resides in Albany.
