LeChase hires Jeremy Hills as project manager

Albany, N.Y., March 21, 2017 – LeChase Construction Services, LLC is pleased to announce the addition of Jeremy Hills as a project manager in its Albany office.

In this role, Hills will manage, develop, maintain and oversee all functions of assigned projects at the preconstruction, construction and post-construction phases. Those functions include but are not limited to safety, construction planning and cost-control procedures.

Hills has 10 years of construction experience in New York, focused largely on commercial, health care and education markets. He holds an associate degree in civil engineering technology from Hudson Valley Community College and a BS in civil engineering technology from the Rochester Institute of Technology. He resides in Clifton Park, N.Y., with his wife and daughter.
