LeChase promotes Abigail Stein to project manager

Albany, N.Y., March 21, 2017 – LeChase Construction Services, LLC is pleased to announce that Abigail Stein has been promoted to the position of project manager in its Albany office.

In this role, Stein will manage, develop, maintain and oversee all functions of assigned projects at the preconstruction, construction and post-construction phases. Those functions include but are not limited to safety, construction planning and cost-control procedures.

Stein joined LeChase in 2013, most recently serving as a project engineer on construction of the Rivers Casino and Resort project at Mohawk Harbor in Schenectady. She holds a BS in civil engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and is currently pursuing a master's degree in construction engineering from the University of Southern California as well as a professional engineering license. Stein resides in Schenectady.
