LeChase hires Robert Peters as senior project manager

Buffalo, N.Y., February 27, 2017 – LeChase Construction Services, LLC is pleased to announce the addition of Robert Peters as a senior project manager in its Buffalo office.

In this role, Peters will manage, develop, maintain and oversee all functions of assigned projects at the preconstruction, construction and post-construction phases. Those functions include but are not limited to safety, construction planning and cost-control procedures.

Peters has 15 years of construction experience in Western New York, most recently serving as a senior project manager at LPCiminelli, Inc. Projects he has managed include construction of the University at Buffalo's Greiner Hall, Chautauqua Institution's amphitheater renewal, and renovations for several public school districts in the Buffalo area.

A native of Tonawanda, N.Y., Peters holds an associate degree in engineering science from Alfred State and a BS in civil engineering from the University at Buffalo. He resides in East Amherst with his wife Sarah and their three sons.
