LeChase hires Christopher Havens as project engineer

Corning, N.Y., April 11, 2017 – LeChase Construction Services, LLC is pleased to announce the addition of Christopher Havens as a project engineer in its Corning office.

In this role, Havens will assist project managers and superintendents by managing documentation and helping direct the efforts of project teams during the preconstruction, construction and post-construction phases of assigned projects.

Havens worked as a project engineer at Corna Kokosing Construction Company (Columbus, Ohio) before joining LeChase. He graduated from Pennsylvania State University in 2012 and holds a bachelor's degree in architectural engineering with an emphasis on construction management.

He currently resides in his hometown of Athens, PA.
