LeChase promotes Jennifer Bills to business development coordinator

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 11, 2017—LeChase Construction Services, LLC is pleased to announce the promotion of Jennifer Bills to business development coordinator, based in Rochester, N.Y.

In this role, Bills will be the marketing point person for the K-12 market, with responsibility for driving proposals, interviews, collateral/promotional materials and events including tradeshow. She will also lead, implement and maintain the firm's Customer Care program.

Prior to this promotion, Bills worked as a marketing assistant supporting LeChase's marketing and business development team. She first joined the company as a marketing intern in 2011. Bills graduated from the Rochester Institute of Technology in 2013, and holds a BS degree in media arts and technology with a concentration in advertising and media strategies. She lives in Rochester with her fiancé Jackson Standard.
