LeChase promotes Sherry Jackson to XBE manager, focused on the company's supplier diversity program

ROCHESTER, N.Y., January 16, 2017 – LeChase Construction Services, LLC is pleased to announce the promotion of Sherry Jackson to manager of its XBE program.

The XBE program is aimed at fostering relationships with a broad range of small and diverse suppliers to expand the company's subcontractor/vendor community. Jackson served as an outreach coordinator for the program since its inception in the fall of 2015, having joined the company in 2014 as a corporate communications specialist.

Prior to LeChase, Jackson worked as a public relations account executive at Roberts Communications, where she successfully managed key accounts in the energy, transportation, aerospace, defense, industrial and senior health care markets. She also worked as a communications coordinator/copywriter at Partners + Napier, where she cultivated client relationships and helped the agency earn local, regional and national advertising awards. She began her communications career as a public affairs associate at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Jackson earned a B.A. degree in communications/journalism from St. John Fisher College and an A.S. degree in communication and media arts from Monroe Community College. She is a member of several local civic and nonprofit organizations, and resides in the Webster area.
